DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

(P&T Board)

New Delhi, the 7th July, 1965

G.S.R. 992.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution and in supersession of all the existing rules on the subject, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment and training of Telegraphists in the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department under the Department of Communications, namely:—

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Telegraphists (Recruitment and Training) Rules, 1965.

(2) They shall come into force on the 1st August, 1965.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) 'departmental candidate' means a clerk employed in any of the following offices :

- (i) Telegraph Offices;
- (ii) Telegraph Engineering Divisions;
- (iii) Telecommunication Training Centres situated in the territorial jurisdiction of the respective unit of recruitment;
- (iv) Telegraph Stores Depots situated in the territorial jurisdiction of the respective unit of recruitment;
- (v) Circle Telegraph Stores Depots;
- (vi) Office of the Accounts Officer, Telegraph Stores and Workshops situated in the territorial jurisdiction of the respective unit of recruitment;
- (vii) Office of the Regional Director, Tele-communications situated in the territorial jurisdiction of the respective unit of recruitment;
- (viii) Telephone Revenue Accounts Offices;
- (ix) all other offices on the Tele-communications side of the Posts and Telegraphs Department situated within the respective units of recruitment;

NOTE.—Departmental candidates shall not be eligible for appointment as such, if after submitting their applications, they leave Government service.

- (b) "Director-General" means the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs;
- (c) "outside candidate" means a candidate who is not a departmental candidate;
- (d) "service" means the service of the Telegraphists of the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department in the unit of recruitment concerned;
- (e) "unit of recruitment" means a Posts and Telegraphs Circle under the charge of a Postmaster-General or Director of Posts and Telegraphs and purely Telecommunication circles like the Telecommunication Circle, Jammu and Kashmir, and the Delhi Telephone District.

3. Scope of duty.—Members of the service shall belong to the cadre of the unit of their recruitment and shall ordinarily be liable to serve only within that unit. In special circumstances, they may be called upon at any time to serve temporarily anywhere in India and in times of war or national emergency such service shall include field service as well.

4. Method of recruitment.—Recruitment to the service shall be in the following manner, namely :—

- (i) 75% by direct recruitment in accordance with Part II of these rules; and
- (ii) 25% by recruitment of departmental candidates in accordance with Part III of these rules:

Provided that if the number of departmental candidates recruited in any one year is less than the number of vacancies available for such candidates, the remaining vacancies shall be added to the vacancies available for outside candidates.

PART II—DIRECT RECRUITMENT

5. Eligibility.—(1) A candidate must be either:—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or
- (e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India, before the 1st day of January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India;

Provided that a candidate belonging to any of the categories specified in clause (c), (d), (e) or (f) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been granted by the Government of India and further in the case of a candidate belonging to category (f) the certificate of eligibility shall be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment beyond which such a candidate may be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian citizenship.

(2) A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be permitted to apply for recruitment and may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being granted in his favour by the Government.

6. Age.—A candidate must have attained the age of eighteen years and must not have attained the age of twenty-three years on the first day of January immediately preceding the date of the first issue of advertisement inviting applications:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to certain categories as decided by the Central Government from time to time.

7. Educational Qualification.—A candidate must have passed the Higher Secondary School Certificate Examination or Matriculation or equivalent examination conducted by a University or a Board of any State.

8. Procedure regarding applications.—(1) The Head of a recruiting unit shall issue an advertisement inviting applications from outside candidates in five principal newspapers including those in regional languages having maximum circulation in the area of the unit of recruitment. The advertisement shall be published in not less than three issues of the newspapers. A copy of the advertisement shall also be sent to all the Employment Exchanges situated in the locality and applications forwarded by any such Employment Exchange within the prescribed time limit shall also be considered. Every advertisement under this rule shall specify the number of vacancies to be filled including those reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

(2) The application shall be made in the form prescribed in Appendix A, a printed form of which shall be made available from all Head Post Offices, Departmental Sub Post Offices and Departmental Telegraph Offices free of cost. The application forms shall also be made available at the Employment Exchanges if a requisition is received from them. If printed forms are not available, the applications may be made on plain paper in the form contained in Appendix 'A'.

(3) The application forms duly filled in shall be sent to the Head of the recruiting unit within the prescribed time limit either directly or through Employment Exchange. There shall be no fee for submitting an application. The candidates who submit their applications direct to the Head of the recruiting unit shall fill up the application form in duplicate marked "original" and "duplicate". The application marked "original" shall be sent direct to the Head of the recruiting unit duly completed in all respects along with the attestation form (in duplicate) and copies of certificates and the application marked "duplicate" shall be sent to the nearest Employment Exchange. Those who desire to submit their applications through an Employment Exchange irrespective of whether they are already registered with that Employment Exchange or not shall fill up only the application form marked "original" and send it duly completed in all respects along with the attestation form (in duplicate) and copies of certificates to the Employment Exchange.

(4) A candidate who is in Government service shall submit his application through proper channel.

9. Acceptance or rejection of applications.—Every application received under rule 8 shall be examined and if any applicant does not satisfy the requirements prescribed in rules 5, 6 and 7, his application shall be rejected. Candidates whose applications are thus rejected shall be duly informed of the same.

10. Selection.—Selection of candidates shall be made by a Committee set up in each unit of recruitment. The committee shall consist of an officer of the rank of Director of Telegraphs and two Class I Officers of the Telecommunication Wing of the Posts and Telegraphs Department, to be nominated by the Head of the respective recruiting unit. Subject to the orders issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time regarding special representation of specified group of citizens, the Selection Committee shall select candidates strictly in the order of merit as per procedure laid down in Appendix 'B'.

11. Medical Examination.—A selected candidate, other than an official of the Posts and Telegraphs Department who have been so examined already, shall produce a certificate of fitness from the prescribed medical authority before he is sent up for training.

12. Disqualification.—(a) No male candidate, who has more than one wife living, or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for the appointment to the service; and

(b) no female candidate whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the service:

Provided that the Central Government may after being satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any candidate from the operation of this rule.

PART III—RECRUITMENT OF DEPARTMENTAL CANDIDATES

13. Eligibility.—A departmental candidate shall be eligible to apply if he satisfies the following conditions, namely:—

(i) he shall be either permanent or quasi-permanent as clerk;

(ii) he shall not have attained the age of thirty years on the first day of January immediately preceding the date of the first issue of advertisement inviting applications; and

(iii) he shall have a satisfactory record of service.

14. Procedure regarding applications.—Departmental candidates are eligible for recruitment in the unit of recruitment in which they are employed or in the unit of recruitment within the territorial jurisdiction of which their office is situated. They shall submit their applications in the form as prescribed in Appendix 'C' through proper channel to the Head of the recruiting unit.

15. Selection of candidates.—The Head of the recruiting unit shall select suitable candidates from the applicants after scrutiny of their confidential records. He shall have full discretion to reject the application of a candidate whose record is not satisfactory. Candidates whose applications are thus rejected shall be duly informed of the rejection. The remaining candidates shall be given a dictation-cum-handwriting test prescribed for outside candidates and specified in Appendix 'B' and selection shall be made from the candidates qualifying in the dictation-cum-handwriting test strictly in the order of seniority in the clerical Cadre.

PART IV—TRAINING

16. Training.—All candidates selected for appointment as Telegraphists either by direct recruitment or by departmental recruitment under these rules shall be imparted a course of training. The syllabus and period of training, the examinations to be held during and at the end of the period, the minimum number of qualifying marks for such examinations and other details shall be such as may be laid down by the Director-General from time to time.

17. Agreement and deposit.—(1) Before the commencement of the training referred to in rule 16, a candidate, other than a permanent official of the Posts and Telegraphs Department, shall be required to enter into an agreement in such form as may be prescribed by the Director-General, to serve the Central Government for a period of five years from the date of his appointment as a Telegraphist. He shall also be required to deposit a sum equivalent to the total amount payable to him as training allowance during the period of training, as security for the due fulfilment of the terms of the agreement.

(2) The amount of security may be deposited in a Post Office Savings Bank or may be in the form of National Savings Certificates or National Plan Savings Certificates. The Savings deposit account or the Savings Certificates shall be pledged to the Head of the recruiting unit to whom the candidate submitted his application for selection, in accordance with the Savings Bank Rules and National Savings Certificate rules. The Pass Book or the Savings Certificate shall be submitted to the officer in charge of the Training Centre who shall forward the document to the Head of the recruiting unit.

(3) The security deposit referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be refunded to the candidate after he has completed five years of service as a Telegraphist.

18. Removal of unsuitable candidates.—A candidate who is found not suitable at any stage of his training or who fails to secure the minimum qualifying marks at the examination to be held at the end of the training shall be liable to be discharged and the security deposit, if any, furnished by him may be forfeited to the Central Government.

PART V—APPOINTMENT

19. Appointment.—(1) After the successful completion of training, a candidate shall, subject to the availability of vacancies, be appointed as Telegraphist on trial for a period of two years. If, in the opinion of the appointing authority, his work or conduct during the said period of two years is not satisfactory or that he is not likely to become efficient, the services of such a candidate shall, if he is a direct recruit, be liable to be terminated forthwith or if he is a departmental candidate shall be liable to be reverted to the post which he held before his appointment as Telegraphist and the security deposit, if any, furnished by him may be forfeited to the Central Government.

(2) Every candidate shall after the completion of the training and before appointment as a Telegraphist furnish such security, for the faithful discharge of his duties, in such manner as the Director-General may, from time to time, specify.

20. General conditions of service.—The conditions of service of persons recruited under these rules shall be as set out in Appendix 'D'.

21. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, the same shall be decided by the Central Government.

APPENDIX 'B'

(See Rule 10)

1 Selection shall be made strictly on the basis of the percentage of marks obtained by each candidate in the higher secondary school certificate, matriculation or equivalent examination as the case may be, worked out on the basis of total marks in all the subjects except additional optional subjects in which the examination was taken. The percentage of marks shall be worked out to the nearest one decimal point.

2. In the case of candidates who have passed the Indian School Certificate Examination (previously known as Senior Cambridge) marks are not allotted but only the 'grades' in various subjects are given on the certificate. In judging the value of a grade, the mean marks of the grade are to be used and the candidates' overall percentage has to be based on the five best subjects. The mean percentage marks applicable to each grade of the Indian School Certificate Examination results are given below:

Grade	Percentage Marks
2	75
3	66
4	61
5	57
6	51
7	47
8	42
9	39 and below.

3. In the case of candidates who have passed higher examination, the percentage of marks of each of the higher examinations shall also be calculated. Ten per cent of this percentage shall then be added to this original percentage of Higher Secondary or Matriculation or equivalent examination. Thus, for each additional higher examination conducted by a recognised University or a Board, a candidate will be entitled to an additional weightage to the extent of 10 per cent of the percentage of marks obtained in the higher examination. These additional marks for higher qualifications will be given only for examinations like Intermediate/Degree, etc., of a recognised Board/University and not for diplomas or other certificates. If a candidate is both B.A. and B.Sc. or both B.A. and B.Com. he will earn additional marks in respect of each of these examinations. The same will also apply to B.A. and B.T. or B.L. or M.A. A candidate may be given additional marks in respect of 2, 3 or even 5 additional University qualifications acquired by him. No additional marks shall be awarded to a candidate for a pass in the first year examination of a three year Degree Course, whether conducted by the College authorities or by a University or Board.

4. No marks shall be given for the Sports activities of the Posts and Telegraphs Department or any qualification in sports. Bonus marks for sports qualifications shall, however, be given. The bonus marks have been worked out as above, the figure so arrived at shall be further increased at the following rates for sports qualifications:—

(a) International sports activities	4
(b) National sports activities	3
(c) State sports activities	2
(d) University, College or School sports activities	1

5. The candidates will be arranged in the order of merit according to the marks obtained by them as described above. The number of candidates to be selected for the purpose of the dictation-cum-handwriting test, specified in paragraph 6, shall ordinarily be five times the number of vacancies announced. In the case of vacancies reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes also, the same procedure would be adopted.

6. Final selection of the candidates shall be made from those who qualify in a dictation-cum-handwriting test strictly in the order of their merit. For this purpose, the candidates selected in the manner described in paragraph 5 shall be required to sit in a dictation-cum-handwriting test which shall consist of a simple piece of English, at such place or places and time as the Head of the recruiting unit may choose. The dictation-cum-handwriting test shall be conducted by a Class I Officer of the Telecommunication side to be named by the head of the recruiting unit concerned.
